IN THE BUSINESS OF THINKING

M.M. Pant is promoting the ideation, development and delivery of educational products, processes and services for the next generation learning space in the post Internet post WTO world. In tune with the emerging Knowledge Economy, he is exploring the creation of quality Knowledge products and ways of enhancing the productivity of Knowledge workers.

Thinking Systems Design

Drawing on his varied experience over 40 years, in research, teaching, administering and managing Government and private enterprises, he is now designing and building systems that can meet the challenges of an inclusive education of high quality. Pant is a former Pro-Vice-Chancellor IGNOU. He has been on the faculty of IIT, Kanpur, NIT, Allahabad and Visiting Professor University of Western Ontario, Canada. Professor Pant has been associated with many educational organizations as members of committees or working groups, such as the; NCTE, NCERT, CBSE, NIOS, NUEPA, CEC, UGC, AICTE, AIMA, EDCIL, MEDIA LAB ASIA and several Universities. He has been closely linked with the IIT system, acquiring his Ph.D from IIT, Roorkee, having been a faculty member at IIT, Kanpur and a member of the Board of Governors at IIT, Delhi.

Thinking Human Capital

His personal commitment is to enhancing human capital through personalized and inclusive education, and transforming teacher training to foster the development of a professional group of independent educators.

Thinking Research

Proposing new constructs such as 'learning metrics, learning kinetics, educational informatics' to enhance learner motivation and the yearning to learn, learning to think, developing ways of monitoring epistemic development to achieve the required goals and outcomes, are some of his contributions to the field.

Thinking Business Success

He is leading the formation of a new business landscape for education, having founded a very successful enterprise and encouraging several start ups find their way in the new maze of educational opportunities.
